Project: Fingerpost Restoration A489 in Churchstoke Village

The Churchstoke Community Council is considering a project to restore the dilapidated Direction Fingerpost in Churchstoke Village. It is of the view the restoration will enhance the visual appeal to the village and be a distinctive landmark in the conservation area for visitors and local people.

Before investigating further as to costs and permissions, the Community Council invites information from the public as to the inscriptions on the original – but now lost – direction fingers.

The one remaining direction finger indicates

Welshpool 9½

Newtown 12

Should the others be...

Snead 3

Craven Arms 14½

...and...

Mellington 1¼

The Cann 1¾

If you have information on the original inscriptions of the missing direction fingers please contact one of the community councillors or email clerk@churchstoke.org.
